andre_martin_79 Could you give the link to download the book so then to listen to it, please? I'm teaching students English and would like them to listen to a real British accent and fluency.

ZIUA ÎN CARE SĂRBĂTORIM
CITITUL ÎMPREUNĂ

edituradph În 2018, Emma Mactaggart, fondatorul unei organizații care sprijină alfabetizarea - Child Writes - a marcat pentru prima dată International Read to Me Day sau ziua Citește-mi!, cum am traduce noi, pe 19 martie.

Este astfel încă o zi în care ne amintim de importanța cititului din primii ani de viață, de felul în care cărțile ajută copiii să-și deschidă mintea și să devină curioși și dornici de a învăța cât mai multe.

Deoarece pentru editura DPH #EducațiaContează și suntem alături de orice demers care sprijină lectura, ne bucurăm de fiecare astfel de zi și am pregătit multe surprize!

📖👉 Am invitat alături câțiva dintre autorii noștri dragi, care să ne ofere o clipă de răgaz și un moment de imaginație alături de cărți. Așadar, urmează câteva povești frumoase, începând cu ora 10.00 și paaaână diseară!

📖👉 Am pregătit reduceri de 30- 50% pentru toate cărțile de povești, pe care le găsiți aici: <https://www.edituradph.ro/carti->

Do you have a memory or an early childhood experience with literacy you would like to share?

International Read To Me Day

2

I can't remember how many books I authored out of scrap paper, cereal boxes or old envelopes stapled together.

It was a bonus when I could read those books to my mom or my siblings.

My dad was out shovelling snow, but slipped and fell, injuring himself. He came back into the house, nursing his wounds, expecting the rest of the family to be there to offer some comfort.

But he walked in and discovered my mom, my brother and me crying... because my mother was reading the ending of Charlotte's Web.

My dad used to tell us made-up stories every night. One of our favourites was about a prince who got stuck in a chair, which always made us giggle as we imagined the scene.

He also told us The Alanman and his Wife, and those stories transported us to magical worlds, sparking our imagination and love for storytelling.

Happy International Read to Me Day!! Reading aloud to children encourages imagination, and connection, and nurtures a lifelong love for reading. ...more

Did you know that 93% of adults agree that reading with children improves school performance!

Read any text with your child for 5-10 minutes daily and improve their confidence!

Facts about reading with children:

- 83% of adults agree that reading with children improves school performance.
- 52% of adults who live with children read with them.
- 82% of adults who would read more to their children if they had more time.
- Knowledge of 93% of adults is that reading with children is beneficial for increasing a person's culture and literacy.

Recommendations:

- Increase awareness about the importance of reading with children from a very young age.
- Increase the number of books in homes and build adult confidence in their reading.
- Campaigns to promote reading with children should emphasize that it just takes a few minutes.
- Reading with a child daily for 5-10 minutes is the target. Reading regularly is more important than reading for a long period.
